Subject: A422 bridge Farthinghoe update

Good morning.

Work is progressing well on the repairs to the bridge and we are on schedule to complete prior to Christmas. The works started on Monday November 19 and are on a four week programme, weather dependent. We did lose a couple of days due to the weather but remain on course to reopen the road for Christmas.

The pre-fabricated unit arrived on site and we started to install Monday 3rd December.

The carriageway has been inspected and we are going to carry out repairs to various parts of it before reopening it to traffic.
